Dear Sir or Madam,

Archon 27 is fast approaching. This year, Archon becomes a four-day convention. However, there were not enough vendors to warrant opening the dealer's room on Thursday this year. We will be opening the dealer's room on Friday (Oct 3) at 9am for dealer setup. We will be opening to the public at 2pm. You will still be able to get into the dealer's room on Friday, up to closing time at 8pm. Saturday hours for dealer's room are 9:30am – 10am for setup and open to the public from 10am until 6pm. Sunday hours are 9:30am – 10am for set and open to the public from 10am until 2pm. Teardown of the dealer's room begins at 2pm. We need to be out of the dealer's room by 5pm on Sunday.

If you have access to the internet and can visit the archon web site at <http://www.stlf.org/archon>, I will be posting a grid map of the dealer's room. You should be able to find out where exactly you will be located. Also, please make note of my new email address: randy@digitalcaffeine.net. Email to my previous email account won't make it to my new email address as the company no longer exists. If you require electricity for your booth, we will be collecting that at the convention as the convention center has not given us a definitive amount for what electricity hookups will cost.

If there is enough interest, we would like to be able to open the dealer's room next year on Thursday late afternoon through the evening. On the sign up sheets for next year, we will include an option for you to indicate whether or not you will be interested in showing up for Thursday.

Ciao
Randy
